

The Half Term Activity + Evidence Tracker

Ten low-prep ideas for the October half term week. Tick what you did, add a one-line note, and it's ready for your records.

| Activity                                        | Done?                    | One-line note | Subject area             |
|-------------------------------------------------|--------------------------|---------------|--------------------------|
| 1 Hedgerow and colour scavenger hunt            | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Science                  |
| 2 Cook something from a recipe                  | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Maths and English        |
| 3 Write to someone                              | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | English                  |
| 4 Build something that has to stand up          | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Design and Technology    |
| 5 Follow a free museum trail                    | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | History, Science, or Art |
| 6 Plan a meal's cost from scratch               | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Maths                    |
| 7 Leaf or seed identification page              | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Science and Art          |
| 8 Watch a documentary, then talk about it       | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Cross-curricular         |
| 9 Read the same book, at different levels       | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | English                  |
| 10 Do absolutely nothing structured, on purpose | <input type="checkbox"/> |               | Rest and wellbeing       |

You don't need to complete all ten, or any of them. Tick what you did, and leave the rest.